DISCRIMINATION AGAINST ALEXANDRIA -In the "Enquirer" of the 24th, we re-produced an editorial from the Al-xandria Gazette, charging upon the Virginia Central Railroad dexter, who was tried upon a charge of hav- Company "discrimination made against Alexandria, in the charges on freight." The "Gazette" says that in "the transportation Saturday. months, and fined three hundred dollars, complained of exists." We were not advised as to facts, when we commented on the "Gazette's" complaints, and did not attempt to controvert its statement. We are now prepared to join issue with the "Gazette," and deny that the Virginia Central Railroad Company makes any discrimination in their charges against Alexandria. We are reliably informed that the Virginia Central Railroad Company charges for all intermediate out on bail for his appearance at the spring ville to Charlottesville, the same as for a similar distance from Richmond. That the charge on guano from Gordonsville to Charlottesville, a distance of 21 miles, is preciseof charges for short distances at the Eistern end of the Central road, were adopted withrecently lived in Washington city, acting in in proportion for short transportation. We choose his own market, and probibiting connecting roads from charging higher rates in one direction than in another. We are authorized to say that the Central railroad is willing to give to Alexandria every ficility of access to the wheat trade of Louisa and

Will not the Orange and Alexandria Railroad reciprocate this offer by allowing the Central cars to run to the depots of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad? This arrangement would dispense with the break of bulk necessary under the present inharmonious policies of the two roads. We shall now know whose fault it is, that affairs are not better managed at Gordonsville than they have been heretofore. We are also informed that the proposition, to exchange the use of treight cars, so as to avoid the delay and expense of re-loading at Guidonsville, has been made by the Central Ruilroad, and DIES' DRESS FURS, ever before offered, and that the same can be effected at any time that the Orange and Alexandria Rufrowd will agree to it.
